AGAINST ENMPIRE

October 7th is the 8th year of U.S. occupation of Afghanistan. Tens of thousands of Afghans have been killed by U.S. air strikes, bombs, and bullets, and Afghani infrastructure has been devastated. In just one day of this war, May 4, 2009, U.S. air strikes killed over 150 Afghan children, women, men in a village in Farah province.

Join DC Students for a Democratic Society on October 7th and FUNK THE WAR. We'll be dancing through downtown DC to raise a ruckus and make our voice heard.
